Copyright: As the photographer I retain all rights to the pictures taken and they may not be copied without permission unless you purchase the CD.

Booking confirmation: A deposit of £150.00 is payable in advance. I shall not cancel the date. If unforeseen circumstances prevent my attendance, I shall endeavour to book another photographer on your behalf. If you cancel, the deposit cannot be returned.

Prices: In the event that prices change, you will not pay more than has been quoted at the time of booking

Planning ahead

It would be helpful to meet prior to the wedding to discuss final arrangements. I will make every to provide a selection of all the usual wedding group photos (see list overleaf). To make the best use of the time it is helpful to brief the Best Man and Ushers to help get everyone organised.

Reception - I generally leave prior to the meal being served but will try to get photos of people seated at the tables and the speeches if made before the meal. If you wish me to stay through to the first dance then all I ask is that you arrange a meal - perhaps with your guests.

Important: If there are special photos you require, please provide a list. However, bear in mind that a long list can make for a tedious photo session.

How long do I wait for my Photos? Photos are generally ready to view online within 4-5 days, so you can view and order your prints very quickly. They are normally delivered direct to your door within 24 hours.

Planning your Wedding Photos

While your wedding day has its serious side, it is a fun day and your photos should capture the happiness of the day. While every effort is made to keep things informal, this is a list of typical photos I try to capture. I don't take the bride and groom away from friends and family and prefer to work with guests around me who are free to take their own photos.

Selection of photos at Brides' home if required

At Church or Ceremony Venue:

- Groom, best man, groom and parents, ushers*
- Bride and father/mother; bridal party, bridesmaids*
- Candid shots as appropriate*
- Coming down the aisle*
- Exchanging rings if permission is given*
- Signing register (posed)*
- Group and family shots at church or in grounds:*
- Bride and groom - various poses and with bridesmaids, best man, ushers*
- Parents, Grandparents, immediate family, brothers, sisters and families*
- Mingling with guests*
- Confetti throwing or Bubbles*

At the reception venue it is important to try and organise the photos as quickly as practical. I am happy for the Bride and Groom to mingle with guests but your photos are important so we'll aim to get the right balance.

- General group and family photos at reception*
- Bride and groom - various poses together and with bridesmaids and best man*
- Parents, Grandparents, Immediate family*
- Brides relations / Grooms relations*
- Friends of bride / Friends of groom*
- Candid shots if couple mingle with guests*
- Cake and Posed cutting of cake*
- Depending on timing, a few shots of the line-up if one is organised. Speeches if before meal.*

You will also have special people you'd like in a photo; groups or individuals so please give some thought to those. But if you plan too many photos you'll not have time spend with friends and family - and I'll get the blame!

Thank you for your enquiry about photography. I hope this leaflet will help you in your choice of photographer. The photographs look great and reflect a special day and will bring very many happy memories."

Not every photographer offers this service.
